

Steve Cave's Skateboarding Blog

From Steve Cave,
Your Guide to Skateboarding.
FREE Newsletter. Sign Up Now!

2007 AST Dew Tour Season Finished

This last weekend held the Playstation Pro, the final stop in the AST Dew Tour. Greg Lutzka was the leader going into the final street skateboarding jam session and he maintained his dominance to take the win. He earned his second victory of the season after landing technical tricks in the final moments of the jam session. Lutzka won with a 90.83 and Sheckler was a close second with 89.58.

"There was 30 seconds left and I wanted to just go for it so I ran up the ramp and went for it and it worked," Lutzka said.

Ryan Sheckler clinched the Dew Cup at last month's Toyota Challenge. Lutzka ranked second overall behind Sheckler.

"It's good, I just can't seem to win in Orlando," Sheckler said. "Second place is not bad. I'm still in the running for Athlete of the Year. We'll see what happens."

Long time vert skateboarding veteran Bucky Lasek captured his first win of the season in the skateboard vert finals pulling six 540s in his second run to earn the highest score of the season in skateboard vert with a 95.50! Pierre-Luc Gagnon finished second with a 94.00, and Shaun White placed third with a score of 91.00.

"I'm stoked, I'm 100 percent right now," Lasek said. "I'm skating better than I ever have and there will be no torch passing."

Olympic gold medalist Shaun White, who clinched the Dew Cup at the previous event in Salt Lake City, fell on a practice run and was unable to return for his second and third runs. White was taken to the Orlando Regional Medical Center for examination and released. Now he can start ramping up for snowboarding!